

Downtown New Jersey (DNJ) is pleased to announce the 2011 Excellence Awards that recognize the best projects and achievements in downtowns throughout the state.

The annual awards were presented at a reception on Thursday, December 15, 2011, at The Heldrich Center in New Brunswick.

“There are many people working on terrific projects to enhance and enrich New Jersey’s downtowns. This year’s award recipients have made outstanding contributions and represent projects that will sustain communities for a long time,” said Michael Redpath, President of DNJ.

The recipients of this year’s awards were:

Built Projects:

Gold Award: Landis Market Place, Vineland, NJ

Silver Award: 14 Maple Avenue & the Metropolitan at Park Ave, Morristown, NJ

Streetscape Redevelopment:

Gold Award: Chatham Borough Streetscape Improvement Project, Chatham, NJ

Silver Award: George Street Beautification Project, New Brunswick, NJ

Rick Mariani Award:

Marvin Reed

Special Service Award:

William Deane

Achievement Awards:

Richard Clayton ~ Chairman of the Board, Spring Lake Business Improvement District

Seth Grossman ~ Director, Rutgers University Institute of Business District Management

Carol Anzalone-Newman ~ Executive Director, Main Street South Orange